Creative Connections, a special concert of Cambodian musicians

Sunday, May 1, 2016. Doors from 5:30 PM. Performance at 6:00 PM. Full address below.

Please join us Sunday, May 1st, at the Cambodian Buddhist Temple in Silver Spring, MD from 5:30 pm, for a special conversation and concert featuring three of Cambodia's most outstanding young musicians. Nhok Sinat playing the Tro Khmer, Lun Phanith playing the kse diev, and Yim Chanthy on wind instruments. They will be joined by the Temple dance group performing the traditional Wishing Dance.

Arn Chorn Pond, founder of Cambodian Living Arts and world-renowned humanitarian, will give a short lecture on his personal story "Child of War, Man of Peace." He will discuss how music saved his life as a child under the Khmer Rouge regime and how he has since used music and the arts to spearhead the recovery and growth of Cambodia's traditional arts.

Come enjoy their unique music and learn about CLA's most recent leadership in widening the opportunities for Cambodian artists and promoting a vibrant and healthy arts sector.

Light refreshments and a chance to mingle with the artists directly following the program.

The event is free, but please RSVP at <https://cla-washington-may01.eventbrite.com> by April 25th.
